MAYOR DAVIS PUTS BAN ON FIREWORKS HERE

WILL ENFORCE ORDINANCE AGAINST SHOOTING FIREWORKS IN CITY.

Mayor Judd G. Davis will enforce the ordinance against the shooting of fireworks in the city on Armistice Day. A special consignment of police will arrest and enforce against all persons this ordinance.

The American Legion has asked the Mayor to give the people this protection. Fireworks made miserable the day last year and considerable damage was done also.

"I advise the boys not to buy fire works because we will not permit them to be used on that day," said the mayor. It is said that all dealers have agreed not to sell fire works except one. The Mayor will see to it that those who buy cannot shoot fireworks here that day.

BAND PREPARES FOR ARMISTICE PROGRAM

TO ASSIST IN CELEBRATION ON NOVEMBER 11TH AND ARMISTICE

The Municipal Band, under the direction of George Fairleigh and with the assistance of Lloyd Mitchell, president, is preparing a special program of music for Armistice Day in co-operation with the American Legion celebration.

The band will play for the big street dance at night in addition to its services during the morning exercises and the day.

At a meeting of the band Tuesday night the program was outlined and a selection of music made for the program of the dance.

The Legion has secured permit from the city to block the street at the Court house for the dance, which has been made an annual event of the celebration.

New Armistice Day Committee Chairmen Named By Legion.

At a meeting held here Monday night by the members of the American Legion committee chairmen were named for the celebration. Mrs. John Watson will serve as the head of the committee to serve dinner to the ex-service men.

W. G. GILLIS TO SPEAK HERE ARMISTICE DAY

POPULAR LOCAL SPEAKER TO ADDRESS EX-SOLDIERS WEDNESDAY.

The committee in charge of the Armistice Day Program is highly pleased with the turn of events that assures Judge W. G. Gillis for speaker at the Armistice Day Celebration here on Thursday.

For several days Judge Gillis had declined the invitation on account of notice from the Court of Criminal Appeals at Austin that a case in which he is counsel had been set down for that date.

Wednesday Judge Gillis obtained consent of the court to postpone this case until November 18, permitting him to appear as the principal speaker of the program here on Wednesday next.

Judge Gillis will prepare his address on this talk to the ex-soldiers and will be a big feature of the program for the day. This address is to be delivered in the district court room as a part of the patriotic exercises.

Messrs S. A. Cottle and Charles McGehee spent Saturday in Waco.

TEXAS POWER AND LIGHT COMPANY ENTER CITY

LAWRENCE AND HENDERSON MERGE INTERESTS WITH POWER MANUFACTURERS

The light and power utilities of the Cameron Water, Power & Light Co. have been sold to the Texas Power & Light Company, the deal to be closed on December 1.

By terms of this sale T. S. Henderson and C. W. Lawrence, owners of the local industry, become large stockholders in the Texas Power & Light Company.

The city council having approved the contract at the meeting on Wednesday night there remains no further obstacles to the deal.

One of the features of the deal according to Mayor Davis will be a lower light and power rate for the city of Cameron saving about $7000 net each year on the tolls paid.

The Texas Power & Light Company will run a line through Cameron from Houston giving two lines across Milam county.

The local company reserves the ice and water concessions and will probably subscribe for power from the new concern not operating their plant further.

The Commercial Club has become impressed with the work of the negro farm demonstration agent for Milam county and will make an effort to assist the agent in securing a suitable office space in the downtown district.

The Commercial Club has also under advisement the construction of a rest room for negro women and other accommodations for negro population who come to the county seat to trade.

Agent Williams for the negro farmers has enlisted the co-operation of his farmers to enter the cotton contest and has signed up 28. He has also secured agreement with a large number to begin a ten year crop rotation program to improve the farm lands.

Enlisting the club in agricultural activities is believed to be the best work of the year as viewed by many because agriculture constitutes the resource from which all business and economic life sustains in this country.

ANNIE STALLWORTH IS NAMED ITS PRESIDENT

PERMANENT CLUB PLANS PERFECTED AND CITY GETS CIVIC BODY.

Cameron has a new civic body with a membership of eighty or more business and professional women of the city.

Permanent organization was effected on Tuesday night when a banquet was held in the basement of the Methodist church, the women of the church serving the menu.

Mrs. Meta T. McCown presided at the meeting in its preliminary deliberations, calling the meeting to order and stating the purpose for which it had been arranged.

Miss Annie Stallworth, manager of the Fidelity Abstract Company, was named president of the body. Miss Stallworth has been identified with the business interests of the city for a number of years, and her selection is hailed by the members as appropriate and deserving.

Miss Rose Rischer was named vice president; Miss Minnie Nell Blaylock, secretary; Mrs. Penn Wolf treasurer.

Miss Stallworth in an address outlining the ideals of the organization, and its prospective achievements developed enthusiasm among the members. This address in full will be printed in the next issue of the Herald.

Entertainment features of the evening were readings by Mrs. Dr. A. B. Guinn and a solo by Mack Harvey.

At the conclusion of the meeting Miss Stallworth appointed the following committees: Executive committee Miss Leila Woolley, Mesdames Hubert Hefley, A. B. Guinn and Miss Imogene McLerran.

SELF IMPROVEMENT AND SERVICE AIMS OF BUSINESS WOMEN HERE SAYS MISS ANNIE STALLWORTH.

Filling the niche in the great economy of social and civic responsibilities through the good offices of organization will achieve for Cameron business women a lasting monument of service, declares Miss Annie Stallworth, who has been elected president of the Business and Professional Women's League of Cameron.

In a paper outlining the aims of the organization read before the body on Tuesday night Miss Stallworth led the women to a happy achievement, that of organizing permanently and was chosen by the body to serve as its leader.

"Logical reasons why the business and professional women of Cameron should go into permanent organization," was the subject of this paper read to the assembled women.

Briefly these reasons were summarized as embracing social welfare which the president justified by a proof of necessity for contact and association to promote mutual ideals and ideas. Self improvement, she

TRADES DAY HERE IS PROCLAIMED A SUCCESS

LARGE CROWD IN TOWN AND MERCHANTS REPORT GOOD BUSINESS.

Trades Day in Cameron was a success from many angles on last Monday.

A large crowd of people were in the city for the advantages of the day and to benefit by the program arranged by the Commercial Club.

A number of prizes were awarded by the merchants and business men and a big feature of the day was the service of the bands of Cameron, with the Junior Band staging a parade and a number of concerts.

Clarence Ousley of the Farm Bureau Federation addressed the farmers on co-operative marketing and the methods of handling the cotton crop.

A parade by the automobile dealers displaying the late models attracted attention from the crowds.

The program for the day was not carried out as advertised but it is thought that on next first a program with considerable attraction will be arranged.

CAMERON PLAYS BRYAN FOOTBALL ON FRIDAY

CAMERON TO PLAY BRYAN FOR DISTRICT CHAMPIONSHIP ON FRIDAY.

An interesting turn to the football situation in the district had decreed a game between Cameron and Bryan at Bryan Friday.

Caldwell has yielded the game won by her from Cameron to the Yoemen thus forcing Bryan to play Cameron. The Cameron team is said to be much stronger and clearly outplayed the Hornets. Not wishing to see Bryan take the championship without beating the Yoemen the Caldwell coach has appealed to the intercolastic director in Texas and has brought about the game.

Coach Perkins will take his Yoemen to Bryan Friday for this game. A number of citizens will go with the team.

Two and one-hundred inches of rain fell in Cameron Wednesday night augmenting the season insured by twelve inches received in the month of October. Next year should be a good crop year.

CHAS. A. PITTS, PIONEER DIES HERE OCTOBER 31

PIONEER CITIZEN DIES AFTER LINGERING ILLNESS HERE.

Chas. A. Pitts, 70, for many years a resident of Cameron, died at the home of Mrs. W. R. Young in Cameron Saturday morning, October 31, 1925.

The death of Mr. Pitts brought genuine sorrow to the people of Cameron for he numbered his friends by the hundreds and for nearly four decades was identified with the business interests of the city.

Death came to him after an illness of several weeks. He died at the home of his niece where he had made his home for many years.

Chas. A. Pitts was born in Oglethorpe, Georgia, September 17, 1855. In his early childhood he moved to Union Springs, Alabama. In 1883 he moved to Texas and came to Cameron where he lived until his death. In later years he engaged in the mercantile business with the late Col. E. J. McIver.

In childhood he was converted and joined the Presbyterian church, living a consistent and sacrificial life to the end. One of the fine traits of his character was self denial, serving for others.

There were three children in the family, Mrs. McIver, Mrs. B. J. Baskin and Mr. Pitts. He was left an orphan at an early age, his father having died when he was eight years old and his mother prior to that time.

Surviving him are his sister, Mrs. McIver and niece, Mrs. W. R. Young of Cameron; and nephews, Arthur, Julian, Roy Baskin; Mrs. John Pace of Haskell; Mrs. Sam Streetman of Houston and Mrs. Will Paden of Houston.

The funeral was held from the Presbyterian church Sunday morning at ten o'clock, Rev. R. S. Marshall of the Methodist church conducting the services. Here gathered his friends, paying in grief their last tribute to the departed. He had served for many years as treasurer of the church and was faithful.

The C. N. Green undertaking company directed the funeral and interment was made in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mr. Pitts was quiet and reserved of manner and capable of deep friendships and breadth of charity and compassion. He was loved by all who knew him in his years of business here, the latter part being devoted to cotton, being associated with Hugo Slaughter in the firm of Chas. A. Pitts & Co.

The following were the active pall bearers: Judge John Watson, C. W. Lawrence, Robert McLane, W. H. Triggs, B. Slocomb and D. H. Slaughter. The honorary pall bearers were: J. G. Vest, Monta Thomas, B. P. Atkinson, Bob McLane, Judd Davis, Dr. Jas. Watson, T. C. Stafford, John B. McLane, A. N. Green, W. W. Chambers, Graham Gillis, Giles Avriett, E. Eggert, C. R. Phillips, J. M. Ralston, Lu Meyers, J. L. Barmore, E. O. Schiller.

EX-SOLDIERS WILL BE HERE NOV. 11

THOUSANDS EXPECTED FOR CELEBRATION WEDNESDAY NOVEMBER 11.

Ex-soldiers of Milam county will capture Cameron on next Wednesday as sure as they broke the Hindenberg line and cut the lines of communication in the great Muese-Argonne offensive in 1918.

The capture will be of another kind. The city will capitulate to the soldiers in their annual observance of Armistice Day.

The citizens await their arrival and everything possible has been done to insure a great day for the men we loved so well back in 1918 for their valor.

There will be a program lasting all day featuring a big football game in the afternoon and a dinner free to service men at noon.

Patriotic exercises will open the program of the day in the district court room.

Two bands will furnish the music and there will be a big time in the old town with a street dance at night featuring the Cameron band for the music.

The public is invited to the exercises in the court house and throughout the day. The dinner will be served for the ex-soldiers only.

R. J. LONG BUYS THE BATTERY SERVICE STATION

CAMERON BATTERY SERVICE STATION NOW UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT.

R. J. Long has purchased from the Owens Refining Company the Cameron Battery Service Station from Jack Owens. This station was purchased from Owens by the refining company and then sold to Mr. Long, who on September 1 took over the distributing interest of the refining company here.

Later the Owens Refining Company sold its Minerva interests to the Kent-Middleton Refining Company, Mr. Long continued as distributor for Milam county gas and oils.

The battery service station has been changed to R. J. Long Filling Station and will be conducted by Mr. Long in a manner satisfactory to the patrons and the general public.

Battery service will be continued and with the gasoline pumps and drive-in privileges the station will continue to be a popular place for the motorist.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

Miss Blanche Hensley was hostess to the boys and girls of the seventh grade on Friday evening at the Ada Henderson school building for a Halloween party. Gay streamers, Jack O' Lanterns, pumpkins, witches, all the mystic symbols of the ghostly season were used to make the room ready for the party. Old fashioned games of pleasure. A witch, Mary Alice Gohman, told fortunes. Stick candy, black and yellow jelly beans, crackers and apples provided refreshments. A cracker race was won by R. B. Rylander, Jr. Prothro Deer and Standiford Stach won the nose races. Douglas Williams was successful in bobbing for apples contest. Misses Nancy Ree Slocomb, Cora Barmore, Mary McDermott and Margaret McCown conducted each one through a chamber of Horrors. A scramble for nuts kept all lively for a short time. Apples on strings revealed fortunes. Miss Gilstrap, Mesdames B. Slocomb and Ben Atkinson and Superintendent T. A. Fisher assisted Miss Hensley with the entertainment.

Miss Mignon Graves of Rockdale and Misses Florence and Lillie McCown of Caldwell were out-of-town guests.

HALLOWE'EN SILVER TEA.

Thursday evening the Methodist parsonage was the scene of a Halloween Silver Tea given by the Methodist ladies of Circle Two. The parlors were decorated with the colors and symbols of the season. The king spectre and ghosts of several sizes with Halloween witches and hob-goblins made the evening interesting. Mrs. R. H. McIntosh, Miss Delphia Scott and Mrs. C. S. Peyton had charge of the entertainment features. Mrs. B. Slocomb, Mrs. C. S. Peyton and Miss Ima Wilson were weird spirits. Character readings by Miss Louise Berry and Miss Moselle Bigbee featured the evening. Mrs. W. J. Hoover told fortunes. Mrs. M. M. Johnson, Mrs. R. B. Rylander and other circle ladies served hot chocolate or coffee and cake in the dining room. Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Marshall and their interesting family made ideal hosts for the occasion.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Spook sentinels greeted the guests when the Euzelian Class of the Baptist Sunday School entertained with a Halloween party on Thursday afternoon at the Sunday School annex.

The room was draped in the colors of the season and handsome vases of yellow zenias were placed at vantage points. Black cats, owls, bats, and witches on broom sticks were used to increase the weirdness of the scene.

Mrs. Elbert Martin was quite successful in pinning on the cat's tail. Mrs. W. O. Newton, by virtue of getting dressed, was elected to attend the Sunday School convention. Much merriment was displayed in such games as "Poor Kitty", "Packing Grandpa's Trunk," etc. A tap sounded at the door and an old witch appeared. She went to her booth with a plea to the ladies to allow her to tell their fortunes. Many complied to her request and interesting things concerning the future were revealed.

Fruit gelatine and cake was served to the thirty or more class members. Black cats were given as plate favors.

After singing the class song, "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning", the members reluctantly said farewell and went to their homes, after an exceedingly pleasant afternoon.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Hutcherson, Rev. Hutcherson's mother, Mrs. W. C. Binford, Mrs. Conn Miller and Mrs. Fanning.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The Episcopal Church will have Evening Prayer and sermon at seven o'clock next Sunday.

Young Peoples Service League meeting at six o'clock.

Sunday School at nine forty-five.

BAPTIST CHURCH NEWS

The services at the Baptist church continue to be well attended. The house is comfortably filled at almost every service. The pastor's sermons get better and better as the weeks go by, and the people are showing their appreciation of same by their interest and co-operation in all lines of work. Frequently there are conversions in the regular services. A week ago Sunday, there were two additions by baptism.

The church is also singing the gospel in a worthy way. You do not hear any anthems there, or any of the showy class of music, but the old time hymns, which are appreciated so much by all, and which make us feel better when we hear them. The thing that helps somebody is the thing that counts after all. There is also special music at almost every Sunday service.

The Sunday School attendance is staying around the three hundred, sometimes more, sometimes less. The goal is four hundred average attendance by January 1, 1926. The B. Y. P. U's are doing fine and are steadily going forward.

Come on folks and lets make all our work go.

Time Payment Is Aid To Lower Price Says Chevrolet Co.

The new time payment purchase plan of the General Motors Acceptance Corporation when applied to the purchase of Chevrolet automobiles makes the time payment price of the car from $15 to $35 lower, according to C. E. Dawson, assistant general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor company.

Mr. Dawson expresses enthusiastic approval of the plan.

"Today the automobile is a necessity; it has long passed the luxury stage," said Mr. Dawson. "Therefore like other necessities the automobile logically may be purchased out of current income and a majority of automobiles are so purchased."

"The G. M. A. C. plan enables the purchaser to buy his car out of the income without the imposition of heavy premiums. Chevrolets may now be bought on one third down payment and operated during the year while the payments are being completed at an additional cost of only eight cents per day for financing the time payments. This eight cents, besides meeting all interest and carrying charges, gives the purchaser complete fire and theft insurance coverage for one year."

"Heretofore, when dealers were financing their time payment sales through independent finance companies the interest and carrying charges varied greatly according to the resources of those companies and the volume of their business."

"The G. M. A. C. was organized as an aid to the General Motors dealers in order that they might give their patrons the benefit of lower interest and carrying charges. Because of its immense resources and the steady volume of business which it receives from the General Motors units, the G. M. A. C. enables dealers to reduce interest and carrying charges to the absolute minimum."

"The G. M. A. C. time payment plan is dove-tailed perfectly with the Six Per Cent Certificate plan by which prospective Chevrolet owners are paid six per cent interest or deposited toward the first payment on a car. When this money and the interest reaches the sum of the down payment, the car is delivered and the purchaser completes his payments under the inexpensive G. M. A. C. financing plan."

PREPARING FOWLS FOR EXHIBITION

Begin now to study the form, type, and color of your birds so that you may condition the best ones for the show. Weed out all fowls that have crooked beaks, backs, legs, tails or breast. Also those that are undersized. Learn the disqualifications of your breed and throw them out also. The legs and toes should be washed with tepid water and soap and rubbed with sweet oil or vaseline. The comb and wattles may be treated in the same way.

The white birds may be washed.

Four tubs of water luke warm should be provided. Thoroughly saturate the feathers with the water and rub the soap in with a rough brush. Be careful not to rub the feathers the wrong way. Rinse thoroughly in the remaining three tubs of water or until the feathers are free from soap. They should be kept in a room until the feathers are thoroughly dry. This is important; first, because you do not want the birds to take cold by being chilled as by coming in contact with the cooler air; second, if the birds are let loose the birds are apt to get the feathers soiled. The day before taking them to the show the legs, toes, comb and wattles should again be treated as mentioned above.

COUNTY TAX COLLECTOR REPORTS BUSINESS GOOD.

County Tax Collector Roy Law was in Rockdale last Friday and Saturday for the purpose of collecting state and county taxes, making his headquarters at the Rockdale State Bank. He spent two very busy days, and stated to a Reporter representative that the people of this community had responded more liberally to his collection notices than any other community so far visited, his two-days' collections here being the heaviest of the season to date.

An interesting statement of Mr. Law's is that the people of Milam county as a whole are paying their taxes earlier this year than they did last year, and that he has collected more money to date than he had collected up to same date last year. This is remarkable, as the people had plenty of money last year, following a good crop, whereas this year they are suffering the effects of the worst drouth in the history of the county.

Mr. Law recently sent out postcard notices to all taxpayers notifying each one of the exact amount of taxes due and giving him the date upon which the collector would visit that particular community. He believes that these notices have had a material effect on early collections.

Mr. Law also showed our reporter a letter from the State Treasurer thanking him for early and liberal remittances, and stating that the county tax collectors by such co-operation had kept the state from going on a deficiency basis.—Rockdale Reporter.

ROCKDALE DENTIST IS LIEUTENANT COLONEL DENTAL RESERVE CORPS.

Dr. G. E. Wisecup, D. D. S., of this city is in receipt of the following notification from the Headquarters of the Eighth Corps Area, Dental Reserve Corps, Fort Sam Houston, Texas:

Certificate of Capacity.

"October 23, 1925.—Major Clarence Ellsworth Wisecup, Dental Reserve Corps, O-100879, has satisfactorily completed the required examination and practical tests provided for in paragraphs 52 and 53, AR 140-5, W. D., 1924, and is deemed to have the necessary professional qualifications to perform the duties and to assume the responsibilities of the grade of Lieutenant Colonel Dental Reserve Corps. By command of Major General Hinds: Signed, F. C. REILLY, Major, A. G. D., Assistant Adjutant General—Seal."

Dr. Wisecup has served in the army in his professional capacity, and has continued since the war, to take a hearty interest in the Reserve Corps work, making the encampments regularly each year, studying and passing the required examinations for promotion. He has steadily advanced from the rank of Captain, to that of Major and now Lieutenant-Colonel.

The Reporter congratulates Dr. Wisecup on his new honors, and hopes that if another war comes brewing that he will be enabled to pull the teeth of the war dogs before they get in action.—Rockdale Reporter.

Attention is directed to the display ad elsewhere in this issue signed by Roy Law, tax collector of Milam county, in which the new headlight certificate law is explained in relation to the collection of automobile taxes. The law requires the tax collector to demand a certificate of headlight inspection from each car owner before he can issue the automobile license. This is an effective manner in which to enforce the new headlight law, and no doubt many automobile owners will have to be disciplined in that manner before having their lenses adjusted.—Rockdale Reporter.

As per his advertisement in last week's Reporter, Mr. H. E. Redfield, of Cameron, was in Rockdale Tuesday for the purpose of canvassing the city, soliciting work in his line of furniture repairing, re-finishing and upholstering. Mr. Redfield told our reporter that he had succeeded in covering about one third of the city, and secured more orders than he could fill in several weeks. He was delighted with the results secured by his ad in the Reporter, and readily agrees that "Reporter ads do get the grapes." He was also pleased with the reception given him by the ladies. He found any number of them awaiting his call, interested in his proposition, and ready to refer him to other ladies who wanted work done in his line.—Rockdale Reporter.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS VISIT THORNDALE ON TOUR OF INSPECTION.

Officials of the I. G. N. Railroad stopped a few minutes here last Saturday while en route over this line on an inspecting trip. The car resembled that of an interurban car and was propelled by means of a gas motor. The following officers of the company were in the party: H. B. Stafford, vice president of the Gulf Coast Lines; P. J. Neff and J. E. Anderson assistants to the vice president; Horace Booth, general traffic manager; J. R. Jones, division superintendent; F. S. Swain, assistant engineer; Tom McCord and Charles Cheek, division engineers. No special feature of their trip was mentioned here.—Thorndale Champion.

DR. G. B. KINCAID STRUCK AND HURT BY AUTOMOBILE.

Dr. Geo. B. Kincaid is in the Cameron Hospital suffering from injuries received when he was knocked down by an automobile in front of the Reporter office last Thursday afternoon. His injuries consist of a dislocated knee and many cuts and bruises, the worst of which is over his left eye, requiring ten stitches to close.

Dr. Kincaid was crossing the street diagonally from Bathea's filling station in the middle of the block when struck. The car, a Ford delivery wagon, was driven by Ed McGuyer, who was driving west. Mr. McGuyer says the sun was in his eyes and he never did see Kincaid until the fender struck him. McGuyer says, and witnesses agree, that he was not driving faster than 12 miles per hour. He stopped the car immediately and assisted in rendering first aid. Dr. Kincaid was almost, if not quite senseless when picked up.

After receiving first aid, the injured man was taken to the Cameron Hospital, and news from there yesterday was to the effect that he would probably be forced to stay in bed for two weeks, the injury to the knee being more or less serious.—Rockdale Reporter.

THORNDALE BAND RENDERS FINAL CONCERT OF THE SEASON.

The Thorndale Band, under the leadership of its able director, Dr. C. E. Wisecup, rendered their final concert of the season on the main street here last Friday evening, and as usual cars filled with people almost covered the street from one intersection to the other.

The pieces rendered by the band were numbers that had been played at previous concerts during the spring and summer, and made what was termed as a "Request Program" which made the occasion a most enjoyable and entertaining one, which was attested by the loud applause of the crowd following each number.

In memory of the late Hy. Werner a friend of the band, the members rendered a very appropriate selection to commemorate the deeds of this pioneer citizen and community benefactor and educator.—Thorndale Champion.

591 BALES RECEIVED HERE THIS SEASON: SEED $32 PER TON.

We expect to open our dressing plants about November 5th. Turkeys that you expect to market for Thanksgiving should be fed now on grain. We want to co-operate with you and ask that you come around and talk things over with us.

DUTCH ANDERSON IS SLAIN IN GUN FIGHT

NOTED BANDIT IS SLAIN WITH HIS OWN PISTOL BY OFFICERS.

Muskegon, Mich. Nov. 2.—George "Dutch" Anderson, gunman, killer and pal of Gerald Chapman, convicted slayer and robber was shot to death here Saturday night by Detective Charles Hammond. Identification was made here today by finger prints and Bertillon measurements, as well as by secret service men who have been seeking Anderson.

Anderson, for whom a nation wide search has been made since the slaying of last August 14 in Muncie, Ind., of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hance, died from a bullet fired from his own weapon, but only after he had fatally wounded the detective. The detective came upon Anderson in the Saturday evening crowds in the down town section and arrested him for questioning concerning passing a $20 bill. On the way to the police station Anderson drew his revolver and began firing.

Hammond who was shot at close range and mortally wounded, wrested the revolver from Anderson and fired one shot through Anderson's heart.

Anderson and Chapman have been linked in crime for several years. Their biggest "job", according to police records, was the holdup of a mail truck in New York in 1921. Both were apprehended, convicted and sentenced to serve 25 years each, but both escaped from the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., where they were incarcerated.

Chapman is now in prison in Connecticut under the death sentence for slaying a policeman. A rehearing of his appeal is to be heard shortly.

Both Die Fighting

Anderson went to his death fighting. So did Detective Hammond, who, although fatally wounded, wrested the revolver from the bandits hand in an alley in the shadows of the police station and then killed Anderson with the latter's own weapon.

The arrest was made after Anderson, who had $2200 in counterfeit $20 bills on his person had passed one for a box of candy at the Colonial Cafe. Suspicious of the bill the cashier sent her brother, Garcia Engalls, to the hall across the street. The bill was declared a counterfeit.

Hammond was detailed by chief Hanson to pick the man up. Hammond and Engalls found him mixing with the crowd on Western Avenue, the main business street, and then Engalls pointed him out.

"I am not sure he is the man who passed the bill but he was in the store," said Engalls.

Fires On Detective

Hammond told Anderson to accompany him to the station. He walked along until he was nearing the city hall, where the police station is located. Then he slipped a revolver from his pocket and fired. The first shot went wild and struck a shop window across the street. The second bullet hit another store window.

Anderson ran into an alley at the rear of the city hall. Hammond followed in the face of the gun fire and as he grabbed Anderson, the bandit turned and fired at close range. The bullet went through Hammonds lung and liver.

Hammond wrested the revolver from Anderson and fired a shot into his body, severing the main artery from the heart. Hammond, wounded, sagged against the wall as patrolman George Thompson, attracted by the shots, ran to him.

"Get him! He got me," said Hammond.

Thompson fired a shot into Anderson's body as he tried to rise, but it was the bullet fired by Hammond from the notorious criminal's own gun that killed him.

Hammond, assisted by two firemen walked to the station, where he turned the revolver over to chief Hanson. He was then rushed to the hospital, where he died two hours later.

It was five minutes later that Anderson died in the office of chief Hansen. Officers gave assistance to Hammond and left Anderson to die where he fell. Later he was brought to the station where he soon expired.

It was at first believed that the bandit was Martin J. Durkin, notorious gunman and auto thief.

Anderson had been in the counterfeit game for several weeks, apparently, and had flooded the Michigan cities with the counterfeit $20 bills, according to secret service operatives.

Two weeks ago he entered a drug store at Flint and gave a clerk one of his bills. The clerk, suspecting the bill was spurious, followed Anderson into the street.

Anderson drew his revolver and ordered the clerk back into the store, and then escaped into the crowd. That same day he passed eight of the bills in Flint, it is reported from that city. Since that time he has operated in other cities of the state.

Anderson had an automobile license card bearing the name of James P. Davis, Argonne Hotel, Lima, Ohio. It developed that he stayed for a time at the hotel in that city and was known as "curley" Anderson.

WHY THEY ARE FAMOUS.

The teacher had instructed her language class to write a composition about the city of London. In correcting the papers, she noticed that one little girl had made the following statement: "The population is celebrated for its stupidity". The teacher called Ruth to her desk.

"Where did you learn this about the people of London, Ruth?" she asked.

"It's in one of our books, teacher," she says, "I'll show you".

She brought the book and pointed out this passage.

"The population of London is very dense".

As Mittie Lou stepped into the ticket office to purchase a ticket to Gause handing the agent a two dollar bill in payment thereof.

As he handed her the ticket, he remarked, "Change at Milano". Her prompt reply was, "None of that, young man, I want my change now".

A certain civics class had covered ninety six pages of the book. The teacher told them to turn back into the book and review for a quiz. One of the boys, after looking through the pages, remarked "We sure have been skipping through the dew". The teacher rapidly replied, "By the looks of your report, you have been stumbling through the fog."

HOLLOW.

L. Van Perkins, having some time to wait at a railway station, decided to weigh himself on the slot machine. As he approached the machine, he noticed two small boys watching him with great interest.

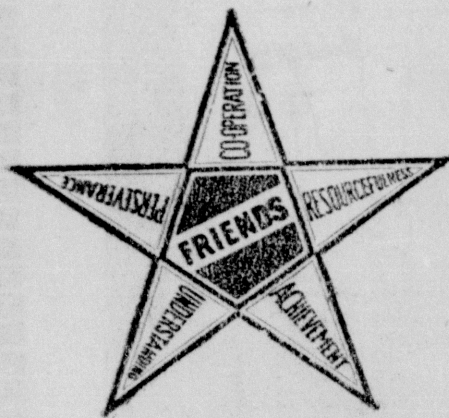

The machine proved to be out of order and the arrow moved slowly around until it indicated fifty pounds on the dial, where it balked and refused to go further.

Gee, Bill! exclaimed one little chap, "He's holler".

THE PENCIL MAKES A FARM PAY BETTER

Farm Accounting Reveals Losing Methods and Points Way to Bigger Profits.

(From Banker-Farmer)

A farm cannot properly be called successful unless it pays a fair rate of interest on the investment and returns fair wages for the farmer's labor. Agriculture is considered by all odds the most important industry in the world, and yet in no other industry is the business end so neglected.

It is common to find a farmer with an investment of fifteen to twenty thousand dollars, yet does he keep books? Perhaps he may jot down a note now and then of an important deal, but this is of no value in an analysis of his business as a whole. No other industry, however small, is carried on without books of some sort.

Farming is a business and to be successful must be conducted in a businesslike way. The business man's mind should have indelibly printed upon it two questions: What profit is my business making? How can that profit be increased? To know the latter, one must find out the former; and to find out about profits requires the keeping of books.

It is not necessary for a farmer to have a course in bookkeeping. Almost every agricultural college in the country has issued a simplified farm accounting book which it sells at cost, and only a few minutes are required each day to jot down the day's happenings.

Accounts Increase Profits

Instances number a thousandfold where farmers have profited by knowing their business. Accounts kept by nineteen farmers in Illinois led them to improve the organization and operation of their farms in ways that added approximately $650 to their average net income in 1922, the seventh year they had kept accounts.

An Iowa farmer found at the end of the first year he kept books that crops fed to livestock brought more money than when sold outright. His figures showed that his cows were poor; compared with other farms in the state, he found the number of acres cultivated per man on his farm, as well as the number of acres per horse, were below average. He rented more land and replanned his fields, so that the crop areas per man and horse were increased. He sold some of his scrubs and bought good cows. The second year his income from the farm, after paying all expenses and interest on the money invested, had been increased over $350.

Costs Can Be Regulated

"I have discovered," says one farm bookkeeper, "that the kind of man you have on a job, as well as the particular team, often makes quite a variation in the cost of performing certain tasks. I have learned from the pages of my book that if I could have increased the yield of my wheat field by two bushels and my corn by five bushels I would have realized a substantial profit from them."

While the farmers may not be able to fix prices on their products, they do have a voice in determining the costs of production. To reduce this cost they must first know what the costs are.

The number of farmers who are keeping books on their business has increased remarkably in recent years, but the number of businesslike farmers is woefully small when listed alongside the sum total of the farmers in the country.

Inventory Is Indispensable

The basis of any system of farm accounting is the annual property list or inventory. It is the starting point of the farm records. One must take into consideration decreases or increases in the value of all property owned to gauge the progress of the business. Lacking facts as to the value of his property, no business man can form an accurate estimate of how he stands financially. Increased cash may be due to property which was sold, or increased debts may be due to improvements made. If a farmer is falling behind, the inventory will emphasize this fact. Often when a man is discouraged and thinks he is making no progress, his inventories will tell him that he is better off than he thought.

At the end of each year a financial statement is drawn off. This is the farmer's rating and no farmer with a good financial statement need fear walking into a bank and asking for a loan.

BANKERS HELP

A bank in Monrovia, Ind., tests seed corn for farmers. A basement room was fitted out last season for the purpose and 25,000 ears were tested for fifty-six farmers. One-fourth of the seed tested last year was unfit for seed. This year the percentage will run even higher. The work is done under the supervision of the high school agricultural teacher. He reports that the community will have a surplus of seed corn this year.

The banks of Conway, Ark., have offered prizes for the most marketable sweet potatoes produced on one acre of land. A first prize of $150 is offered, along with three district prizes of $50 each. The county agent and the banks are working out the details.

The County Bankers Association will help to employ a full time county leader this year for boys' and girls' club work in Calhoun, Cherokee and Duena Vista counties, Iowa.

BAPTIST WORKERS COUNCIL.

The Milam County Baptist Workers Council was held at Rockdale on Monday. Lunch was served by Rockdale ladies in bountiful style. The following were present from Cameron: Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Hutcherson, Rev. Binford, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Burns, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Beckerman, Mesdames Joe Denson, John L. Denson, Conn Miller, J. C. Martin, Annie T. Casey and others.

JUNIOR HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

Walter Burns and Doris Davis were host and hostess to the High School Juniors Saturday night in the spacious parlors of the Burns home in North Cameron. Misses Pitts and Dickard, class sponsors, were assisted by Mesdames L. L. Blaylock and Ben P. Atkinson in making the evening a happy and long to be remembered one by the class members. Committees provided refreshments and social features. Misses Iva and Ima Wilson, Ethel Collins and Katharyn Atkinson served during the evening. The Halloween fortune teller was Mrs. N. H. Phillips. The Halloween festival was made memorable by the features of this party which combined all the spooky season in entertainment and decorative torches lent by the colors of orange and black which were in evidence all through the evening. Pop corn and apples, nabiscoes and hot chocolate were served in ghostly style and favors were in the bright colors of the Halloween season.

SPOOK PARTY

Friday evening the Sunday school annex was converted by Halloween decorations into a witch abode for the pleasure of the Intermediate pupils and teachers. Weird effects were given by the hooded lights and the costumes of the entertainers. The guests were met at the door by two ghosts, Mesdames Don Slocomb and Conn Miller, who pointed the way to a gypsy maid, who gave each a Halloween cap of orange and black to wear during the evening. She directed all to the place where the initials of future mates were found by bobbing for apples. Mrs. Harvey Dobbins, dressed as a witch, then conducted each guest to a fortune teller, where Mrs. J. B. White read the mysteries of the future. Mrs. Earl Westmoreland then revealed the fate of each by the use of walnut shells with lighted birthday candles in lifeboats. Next Philip Reid, dressed as the devil, carried each guest into his den where Ray Burk and S. M. Burns compelled each to ride the "devil's horse" and Mrs. Joe Denson caused many thrills by bringing them in contact with the eye-balls, bones and blood of witches and spooks. After their passage through this den of horrors, guests were ready to partake of the witches' brew and devils cake served by Mrs. Clara Thomas and Mrs. B. E. McMillan in witches' costumes. Miss Alice McGehee in her usual pleasing manner was hostess and saw that each one present enjoyed the Halloween thrills. This evening entertainment will long be remembered.

BADLY RUN-DOWN

Lady Was Very Depressed on Account of Poor Health.

Mrs. H. S. Miller, of Spindale, N. C., says: "Five years ago I was very much run-down in health. I would give out with the least exertion. At times I would have to go to bed. I read of Cardui. . . My husband got me a bottle and encouraged me to take it. I was almost a skeleton, I was so thin. I was run-down and my general health was very poor. This was very depressing and I was in low spirits. My husband had to help me around. He did all he could for me and had me keep up Cardui. I continued taking the medicine for several months and it was wonderful the improvement I made. I gained over twenty pounds in weight, and I felt so much better besides. This gain was permanent, too. I have never lost it and my general health has been much better since I took Cardui."

MILLION BAPTISMS HAD BY BAPTISTS

New Evangelistic Record for Nation for Five Years Set Up in South.

WOULD DEVELOP MEMBERS

Effort to Enlist Entire Constancy of 3,500,000 in Regular Giving Planned Soon.

More than one million new members have been received into the Baptist churches of the South by baptism alone during the past five years, according to a survey by Dr. E. P. Aldredge, statistical secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention. The exact figures, 1,037,550 baptisms, set a new record not only for Southern Baptists, but for any evangelical body in America, the records reveal. This achievement is equivalent to 24 baptisms for every hour, 576 for every day, 3,990 per week, 17,292 per month and 207,510 per year.

DR. ELLIS A. FULLER,
Superintendent of Evangelism.

Prominent in the achievement of this result has been the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga. This board, organized eighty years ago has, within that time, more than a million baptisms and 1,426,386 additions to the churches to show for the labors of its missionaries, while the agents of the board have within that period raised and disbursed in mission work in the South, Panama and Cuba the sum of $18,213,336.16.

Last 22 Years Productive

The larger part of these achievements of the Home Board has come during the past 22 years, covering the secretaryship of Dr. B. D. Gray. Under Dr. Gray's administration the workers of the board have baptized 662,497 persons, received 1,122,344 persons into the churches and organized 4,997 new churches. Within the same period the agents of the board have raised and disbursed in mission work the sum of $14,723,595.87.

The evangelistic department of the Home Mission Board has been its greatest single evangelistic asset. This department has been without an active head recently, but the board has just called to that position Dr. Ellis A. Fuller of Greenville, S. C., and he entered upon his work October 1. He is a young man of college and seminary training and has been unusually successful in soul winning and other phases of work as a pastor.

Southern Baptists have been far more successful in winning converts and church members than they have been in the general spiritual development of the members, it is pointed out. In the hope of bringing about a development of the 3,574,531 members of the denomination to the point where all of them will have a share in supporting all the missionary, educational and benevolent work fostered by the denomination, an Every Member Canvass will be conducted in a majority of the 27,000 Baptist churches throughout the South, during the late fall and winter, the majority of the states employing the week of Dec. 6-13.

Would Enlist Every Member

The canvass will be conducted under the general auspices of the Cooperative Program, which is fostering state, home and foreign missions, the Baptist schools, hospitals and orphanages, and the work of ministerial relief. The ideal toward which the commission is striving is that of every member, giving every week to every cause in proportion to his ability, through his local church. As fully as possible individual Baptists are being urged to give a tenth of their income to Christian work.

So extensively have the various missionary and benevolent enterprises fostered by Southern Baptists grown in recent years that it now requires a minimum of $12,000,000 per year to keep the work growing. Each state is being asked to provide its proportionate share of this amount. The state boards, in turn, are asking the respective associations in their states to accept definite quotas for 1926, and the associations, in turn, are asking the local churches to assume a definite proportion of the associational objective for the year.

THE SALARY RAISE THAT NEVER CAME

Cecilia Schroeder was tired. She had worked all day in the bindery of a great printing plant. It was but one of the hundred of the similar drab, dreary, eventless days that awaited her in the future.

She was tired of waiting for promotions; tired of waiting for salary raises that meant comfort and happiness-- salary raises that never came.

Discontented she began to think. The girls in the office were better paid. Their work was much easier, and their hours were not so long. Yet, not one of them came from better families than she. The girls in the office were better paid because they were trained--they were indispensable. If one of them were to leave it would be difficult to fill her place, but anyone of the thousands of girls could step right in and take her place in the bindery. It was her lack of training that was keeping her in the bindery.

One morning, a few months ago, Miss Schroeder visited the Commercial School that has the equipment to give the young people the training needed for the business world. She told them she wanted the best course they had. When she completed the course, not so very long ago, she was competent for stenographic and bookkeeping, or for private secretary. She had an assurance for success.

A whole visit of success was open to her. And greater success ahead. Her salary had been increased three times. She was glad that the training she had received had caused her to step into a bigger, better, higher-paid position.

There are thousands of Cecilia Schroeders throughout the world today toiling, working their lives away, tired of waiting for promotions and raises in pay that never comes. But they can get the right start by taking one of the courses that Cecilia Schroeder did and the same special training; such as the private secretarial, general business, general railroad, general western union, general banking, bookkeeping, shorthand, civil service, cotton classing, radio, business administration, penmanship and telegraphy.

Mailing a coupon like the one below has been the means of helping hundreds of young men and women to earn bigger incomes. No matter what your circumstances, there is a step in the ladder of success for you. It is within easy reach for you--get the training and fill your place on the ladder of success.

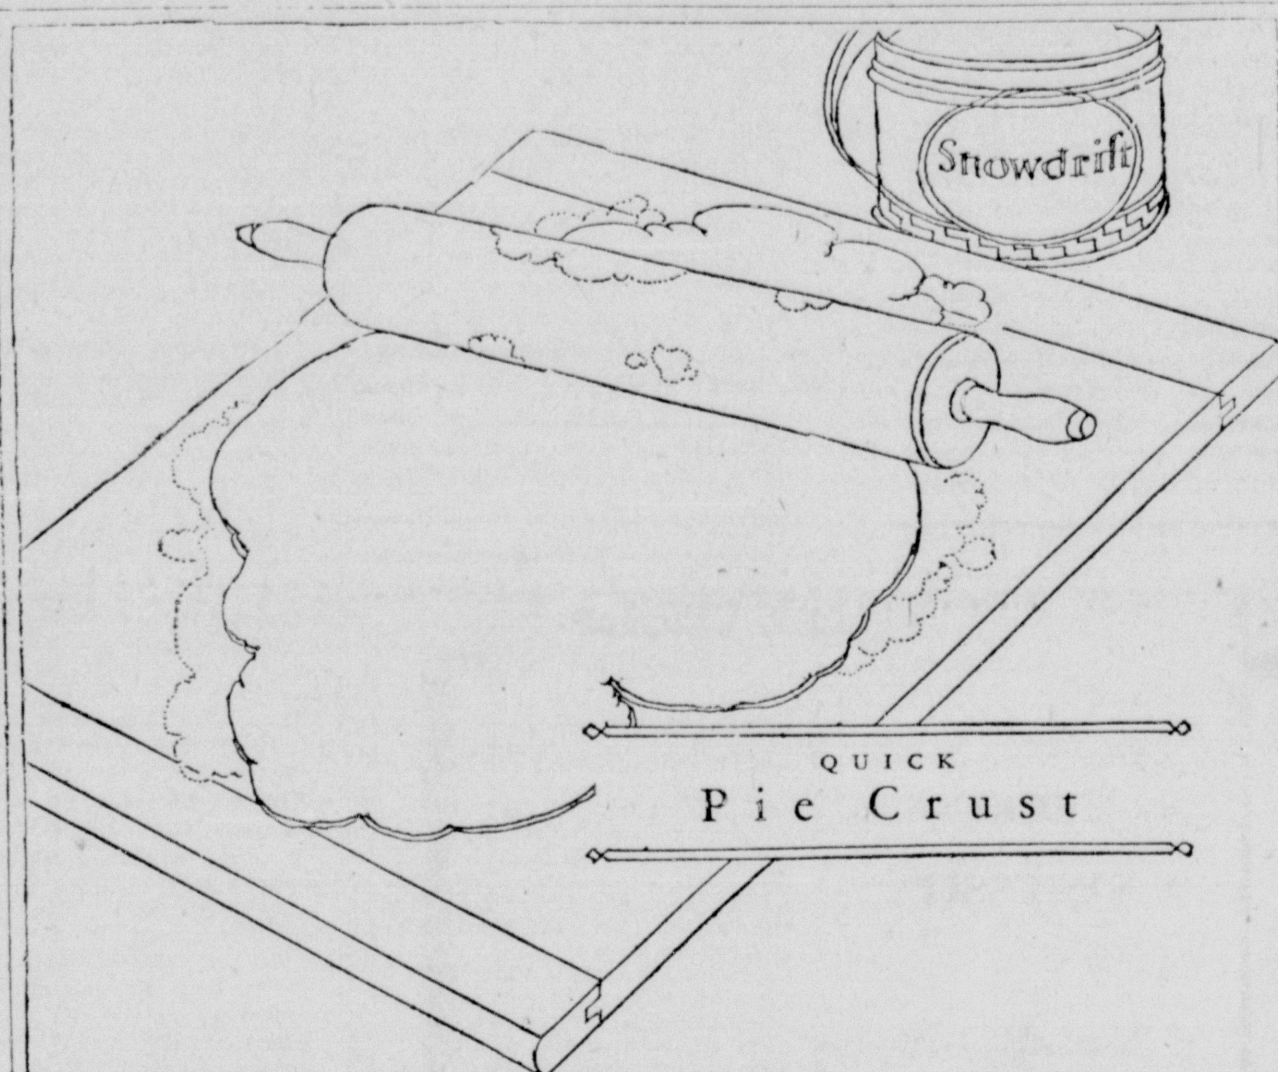

During the Christmas holidays the students may leave for ten days if they so desire. Regular classes will be conducted for those who wish to stay.

We have no branch schools anywhere. We lead; others follow.

Cheese sandwiches—Yolk one hard boiled egg, one-fourth pound of grated cheese, one-third teaspoon of salt, pinch of red pepper, one teaspoon of mustard, one tablespoon of melted butter, one tablespoon of vinegar. Cream all together well.

Tomatoe Club sandwiches—Sliced tomato, crisp bacon and lettuce between slices of hot buttered toast; spread with salad dressing.

Bacon-salad sandwiches—One-fourth pound of bacon cooked until crisp and chop very fine. Mix with one tablespoon each of minced green pepper, pimento and lemon juice. Use with salad dressing as a sandwich filling.

Date sandwiches—Wash dates in tepid water, dry and stone them, remove scales and the inner skin near stone, if it be tough; add an equal amount of finely chopped walnuts, and soften with soft butter or cream, till it can spread on slices of bread. Cover, and press together and cut in triangles. Combine figs and pecans, or raisins and almonds in the same way.

Cream Cheese sandwiches—Cut thin rounds of rye bread, add enough rich cream to cream cheese to enable you to whip to a consistency to spread nicely, adding enough English mustard to make a golden color and flavor nicely. Spread inch thick on bread. Grate over it a quarter inch of cold boiled ham. Place a few shreds of olive over this and serve very cold and fresh. Double cream whipped very Chicken sandwiches—Use one cup of chopped cooked chicken, one hard boiled cooked egg rubbed through a sieve, one-third cup of minced celery and one tablespoon of minced parsley. Mix this with boiled salad dressing and spread between thin slices of buttered bread. Garnish with thin slices of stuffed olives.

Crisp Potatoes—In frying Irish potato chips, if you wish them to be crisp and fry separate so they will look tempting, slice in ice water; dry slightly and fry in plenty of grease. If they are sliced in ice water they will not run together.

To Keep Pecans Fresh—Pick out as many as is desired or enough to fill several quart fruit jars; put the pecans in shallow pans, place them in a hot oven just long enough to heat through—not brown—then put them in hot jars and seal as you would do fruit. They will keep indefinitely.

TO MY FRIENDS WHO SO KINDLY REMEMBERED ME ON MY LAST BIRTHDAY:

I never so much felt my littleness, and unworthiness as I did on my 81st birthday, November 1st. I suppose it would have slipped by unnoticed but Dr. Newton and other close friends reminded me.

On Sunday morning on my way to the post office I met the messenger boy with a telegram which so shocked me I could hardly sign my name upon the dotted line. I thought something had happened to some of those who are a part of my very life, but imagine how I felt when I read it. It was from my youngest daughter, Mrs. Lessie Newton, Houston, Texas, and it read:

"Just to let daddy know how much I love him and how thankful I am that he is my daddy. If all the fathers in the world were lined up and I had to choose one you would be that one. Hope you are happy on this your birthday, for I love my daddy and my mamma dearly. LESSIE."

After reading it in my exuberance, the first friends I met I showed it to them—do you blame me? In this way it became pretty generally known, so on November 2nd, one day late, but none the less appreciated, Brother Marshall, the Methodist minister, knocked at my door while I was attempting to reply to my daughter's telegram. He brought good cheer and a beautiful bouquet. He had hardly gotten out of the yard when Mrs. Slaughter sent her good wishes and a beautiful bouquet of fragrant flowers. Shortly afterwards, Mrs. Lindsey, for the Missionary Society, which met at the Methodist Church, and they remembered me with a most exquisite group of flowers composed of Red Radiance, Helen Gould and American Beauty roses, speaking a language all their own. And I want to say here and now, if I had another 81 years to live, I would prefer Cameron and her people to any place on earth, for they have always seen something in me that I was never able to discern, and they did not forget me on my 81st birthday. To these splendid men and women I stand with bowed head in gratitude.

Statement From The School Board Relating to Athletic Ruling:

The original rule of the Board governing participants in athletics was amended at a meeting of the board Tuesday October 27, 1925. The paragraph below is the original ruling:

"4. That no student shall be allowed to participate in any form of interscholastic athletics who is not fully eligible under the rules of the University Interscholastic League and in addition that no student be allowed to take part in any contest unless he has made on his latest scholastic report a minimum of five points. This requirement is intended to mean that no student shall practice with any athletic squad who is not eligible under the foregoing rule. Furthermore, no pupil who fails to graduate from the High School with his class and who may attend the following session shall be eligible to participate in any athletic contest with any school team. The board insists on a rigid enforcement of this rule."

The Amendment

The following amendment to the original ruling withholds enforcement of the original ruling until after the present session as explained in the amendment:

"That rule 4 of athletic requirements be amended so as to read as follows:

"Rule 4.

"That no student shall be allowed to participate in any form of interscholastic athletics who is not fully eligible under the rules of the University Interscholastic League.

"In addition no student shall be allowed to take part in any such contest unless he has made on his last scholastic report a minimum of five grade points.

"Furthermore no pupil who fails to graduate with his class from the high school and who may attend the following session shall be eligible to participate in any athletic contest during such session unless such failure to graduate is due to illness or enforced withdrawal from the school. Provided this paragraph of this rule shall not become effective until after the present session.

"This rule shall be held to mean that no ineligible pupil shall appear in uniform with any athletic squad at any contest.

CALDWELL DEFEATS YOEMEN 2 TO 0.

Last Friday the Yoemen met the Caldwell Hornets in a griliron battle. A disagreeable day for the spectators as well as the players, but that did not matter because it was a battle between rivals, the Yoemen and the Caldwell Hornets. The field was muddy and slippery, the air cold and crisp, but the spectators lived the norther to see the game.

The Caldwell Hornets appeared on the field with Jancik and Mueller leading. They were cheered by both yelling sections.

The Yoemen were warming up when the Hornets appeared. Baskin, Jeter, Moody and Baggett appeared in their old time form.

Captain Childress chose the south goal with the wind in his favor. Triggs kicks off to Dowell who returns five yards. Caldwell punts to Triggs. Triggs returns for about 3 yards. Childress punts across goal line. Caldwell seems bewildered and calls several conferences. Jancik is stopped! His bewildering and dazzling dashes were broken up. He was stopped with his line plunges, and also scintillated with his line plunges.

Cameron had several chances to score touch downs but were unable. On one play, a forward pass by Childress across the goal line hits the goal posts and bounds to the ground.

Talk about luck, it was with Caldwell, horseshoe, four leaf clover and all. Mueller punts and the ball is touched by a Yoeman. It bounded into Jancik sarms but he is stopped although it netted Caldwell about 15 yards.

Perk tries the Knute Rockne stuff by sending in a fresh team. The Yoemen played the Caldwell team off their feet the first three quarters but in the fateful fourth, by hard luck Childress is forced to punt. The punt is blocked. He tries it again and the ball is thrown over his head by the center. He recovers and prepares to punt again under the shadow of the goal posts. He is tackled from behind thus scoring a safety for Caldwell. The game ended with the ball in the center of the field.

Mondrik, Hertenberger, Jeter, Reichert and Baskin all starred for the Yoemen. Childress played a spectacular game although he was tackled for a touchback. Every man on the Yoemen team starred.

Jancik, Dawell and Mueller starred for Caldwell.

SENIORS SPONSOR CALDWELL DAY

The largest crowd of the season was in Cameron on Friday to witness the Cameron-Caldwell game. The Yoe-Hi seniors had charge of the stands for that day. Mr. Grady Houston offered his service and advised the students, who were somewhat inexperienced in such work, as to just the manner in which to proceed.

The girls made delicious candy and appetizing sandwiches (the like of which only senior girls can make). The boys prepared ribbons and canes to be sold.

The money received from such efforts is being placed in the bank in the hope that the class may be able to present to the school a permanent record system. At the completion of the high school course. All the first class high school and colleges of the United States have one of the systems installed so that students may be able to secure a record of their high school record even many years after they have been graduated.

CHORAL CLUB.

The Choral Club was organized the first week of school and the following officers were elected:

Miss Loring Beard, President.
Miss Ethel Collins, Vice President.
Miss Ena Tyson, Sec. and Treas.
Miss Louisa Berry, Director.
Mr. Perkins has kindly consented to purchase the music for us and we owe it to him to make good.

Since the organization's practices are regularly held every week. A number of songs have been learned. The Lions Club invited us to sing for them and seemed very much pleased with our work.

The men of the city who take the good will trips invited us to go with them and aid them in their programs. So our little effort we think has not been in vain.

In Miss Berry's recital, which will take place November 24th, the Choral Club will give several selections and every one will be most warmly welcomed.

Meandering Montague— "Please lady would you lend me a cake of soap? My side Kick's got the hiccups an I want to scare him!"

Mr. Lacy— "What's a molecule?"
Red Collins— "It is something so small it can not be seen through a microscope".

Thomas— "Say, Pop, do fish eat sardines?"
Pop— "Yes"

Thomas— "Well, how do they get them out of the cans".

WEEKLY ORATIONS.

Twat midnight on the ocean,
Not a street car was in sight;
The sun was shining brightly,
For it rained all day that night.

THEIR FAULTS.

Said Lacy: "There's that beautiful Jolly Blanche Pitts, How charming she is in that gown she is in!"
"Oh yes," said Keeling "She looks very well
That is for a person so horribly thin".
"Here comes Hon. Perk," remarked Miss Blair,
"How stunning his suit, how becoming his hat;
My, how aristocratic". "Oh yes," said Fisher,
"Too bad the poor thing is so terribly fat".

"Just look," requested Sterling, "at Miss Mary Lake"
"What a picture", he cried. "She's so queenly and tall".
"Oh, yes," answered Newton: "but don't you just hate To see anybody so frightfully tall?"
"But who is this beauty approaching", asked Lacy,
"So graceful and small and so good natured sort?"
"It is Aline Tubbs", was Keeling's reply,
"She's pretty, of course, but so awfully short".
Some were too fleshy and some were too small,
And some were not even capable of being mentioned at all.
P. S. Of all the poor critics that ought for to gorge, Turn around fellows, Take a look at poor George. "Three cheers for Lacy."
Never a murmur, nor any popular speaking, Comes from the mouth of our friend Mr. Keeling! Sh! Gently, Boys!"

Lost—Sophomore news. If anyone sees any hanging around grab it and chase it in. This is the request of all Sophomores.

All the class work up some pep,
And give Kate Maples a little He'p.

ODE TO THE SENIORS

Now often times we've heard it said,
By folds of note we've talked and read,
That, "As concerns the classes here
In old Yoe-Hi, the one most dear,
The one that lacks the pep and jazz,
The "just plain dumbs;" the one that has

The celebrated of all the bunch,
This person says he has a hunch
It is the Seniors.
Now to this person let us say,
That up until the present day
We think, no class resides here,
Deserves more praise, merits more cheer

For fanning Yoe-Hi in the state,
Making her reputation great
We've never let her colors fall,
We answer every beck and call,
We Seniors.

There never was a finer group,
Of boys and girls that would not stoop,
To little things to gain an end.
A Senior's everybody's friend
Seniors are example setters
A happy jolly bunch are we,
And just as true as true can be,
To old Yoe-Hi. We Seniors.

About 8 o'clock Friday night the members of the Senior class and visitors from Caldwell who attended the football game in the afternoon, assembled at the home of Bill Morrison.

Black cats, owls and jack-o-lanterns were used in such a manner as to constantly to remind the guests that it was the night for the goblins and witches to mingle with mortals in revelry and games, a night when solemn owls and jack-o-lanterns peep from the windows and ghosts file their nails on the screen.

The guests amused themselves by dancing while others were entertained by several different games. Their futures were mysteriously revealed by Madame Lucille Fowlerete.

The host's sister, Miss Frances Morrison, assisted by her mother served hot chocolate and sandwiches.

How Doctors Treat

Colds and the Flu

To break up a cold overnight or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza, sore throat or tonsillitis, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the purified and refined calomel compound tablet that gives you the effects of calomel and salts combined, without the unpleasant effects of either.

One or two Calotabs at bed-time with a swallow of water,—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, work or pleasure. Next morning your cold has vanished, your system is thoroughly purified and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please,—no danger.

Get a family package, containing full directions, only 35 cents. At any drug store.

CARRIE YOE CLUB

The Carrie Yoe Club with Miss Pitts as sponsor, had its first meeting Oct. 9, 1925. The following officers were elected:

President—Katherine Atkinson.
Vice President—Mabel Wade.
Secretary and Treasurer—Cornelia Gunn.

Sergeant at Arms—Katherine Ledbetter.

Critic—Ena Tyson.
President—Katherine Atkinson

Vice President—Mabel Wade
Secretary and Treasury—Cornelia Gunn
Sergeant at Arms—Katherine Ledbetter
Critic—Ena Tyson

With these officers the club members agreed to make the Carrie Yoe Club one of the best clubs in Yoe-Hi.

At the second meeting of the club on Oct. 28, each member answered roll call with some famous saying. An interesting talk was given by Louise Harrell on "Rules of Order" which was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

The club meets on second and fourth Wednesdays.

The slimes also rank high in their studies and aspire to lead the other classes in their school work.

Thomas— "Whats become of you "Hikers Club?"

Lois— "Oh it disbanded. It was getting too hard to persuade passing motorists to give us a lift".

INDEX TO TEXAS FARMING AT SHOW

Cotton Palace Exposition at Waco Has Varied and Unique Displays.

Waco, Tex.—“An education in agriculture” is, stated in a few words, the magnitude of the many interesting farming exhibits which fill a whole building at the Texas Cotton Palace exposition, dates of which are this year, October 24 to November 9.

At the Southwest's greatest exposition this year there will be featured the various railroad agricultural exhibits—any one of which would be as large as the conventional country fair exhibit—the United States Government exhibits with all that name includes, the West Texas exhibit, the East Texas exhibit, and the splendid array of agricultural resources of Central Texas as prepared by County Agent Tudaly of McLennan county, and his assistants.

Railroad Exhibits.

The various railroad agricultural exhibits are all good, but that which will be entered by the agricultural agent of the Cotton Belt is especially deserving of mention. The Cotton Belt's chief territory in Texas is the Eastern section—which has been favored with the best crops of 40 years this season.

The finest of specimens of tomatoes, watermelons, peaches,
cotton, and the other products for which this section of the great Lone Star State has always been famous will be displayed in this exhibit. The Cotton Palace is preparing to devoted many square feet of its precious space for its display.

Anyone who has ever had the good fortune to witness one of the United States agricultural exhibits will not wish to miss the opportunity of seeing this latest exhibit prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.

It has been to the Cotton Palace before. Therefore, its super-quality is well known. Sufficient it is to say that this year it is even larger, more complete, and more varied than in the past.

West Texas Entry.

West Texas has, like East Texas, been favored with an unusually good season in a crop way this year. All the wealth of this vast, rich section will be displayed in an attractive manner at this year's Cotton Palace.
Information has been received that committees are already at work arranging the West Texas exhibit.

The Central Texas exhibit has had a continual custom in the past of winning the $1,000 prize annually offered for the best farming exhibit. It is prepared under the general supervision of County Agent
Eudaly of McLennan County, with the help of the four other agents in the counties which are included in the exhibit; namely,
Bell, Falls, Bosque, and Coryell.

Although the drouth has wreaked its devastating influence on this section this year, a creditable showing will be made.
County Agent Eudaly is sparing neither time nor effort to see his section well represented.

Fine Specimens Spite Drouth.
Fine specimens of corn, cane,
and cotton—many from irrigated fields—will be displayed.
There will also be maize, oats, hay, fruits, vegetables—all the agricultural wealth of the section.

Under the direction of John K. Strecker, a man who poses no mean reputation as a poultry expert, the best fowl show of years is to be in evidence at the Cotton Palace this fall. Already a lengthy and generous premium list has been prepared, and already hundreds of prize fowls have been entered. Nothing is more interesting than a well arranged poultry exhibit, and with John Strecker to attend to arrangements, such an exhibit is assured.

FIX ROTARY DAY FOR TEXAS COTTON PALACE

Waco, Tex.—A gathering of Texas Rotarians which will rival one of the justly famous state conventions of this mammoth organization will take place on “Texas Rotary Day,” one of the red letter dates on the Texas Cotton Palace calendar. Dates of the exposition this year are October 24 to November 9.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY.

Saturday night the Juniors had a Hallowe'en party at Bill Burn's house.
The first thing was a trip through “Spooky Land” where witches and goblins roamed at will. Next there was a fortune telling contest. At 8:30 a witch stopped and told everyone's fortune.

Popcorn and apples were generously distributed to all during the evening. Later hot chocolate and cake was served as refreshments. Everyone had a good time as Hallowe'en comes only once a year.

Mrs. Mary E. Looney of Branchville and her son, W. C. Looney of Houston, visited friends in Cameron Saturday.
